Former Iowa Governor Eighty Years Old Today

CLERMONT, Iowa, Jan. 20 .- Former Governor William Larabee, for many years one of the foremost figures in Iowa political circles, celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary at his home near here today. Goveernor Lara-

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK STOCKS WERE HIGHER, LEADERS SHOWING EXCELLENT UNDERTONE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—It was good day in the stock market—good from the start to the finish—and the closing was about as strong as the most enthusiastic bull would desire. The fact that the steel business has actually recovered its prestige, that it is a time when orders for steel products must wait the pleasure of the fabricators, is a big thing for the stock situation. Then, too, the abundance of money all over the country and easier rates therefor is having a good effect.

Bull movements are not lasting at this season of the year, nor has the political situation changed materially, while the period has not been placed to the investigating fever. Disturbances are likely to be heard from for the stock situation for the stock situation at this season of the year, nor has the political situation changed materially.

The closing was strong.

The supply of capital thus for manufactured at the Capitol has not been with the tide than against it, and if this strength continues for a few days it may convert to its side some of the doubtful concerns and add to the movement. The public still hesitate, but there are more orders going in than for some time past, wherein they are buying. The Eric has ordered 20,000 tons of Bessemer ralls, the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western has ordered 20,000 tons from the Lackawanna Steel Company.

Union Pacific was 1½ higher; Steel, 1½6%; Southern Pacific, ¾; Reading, 2; and Northern Pacific, ¾; Atlantic Coast Line, 1½ higher; Smelter rose 1½.

The closing was strong.

Bourne. He is a Republican, and he will run as a progressive, but not a radical. He believes in direct elections, the initiative, referendum, and recall, and supports Oregon's popular govern-

The contest will be the more interest-

The contest will be the more interesting because Senator Bourne is not going to Oregon to make a fight. He holds that the people know his record, that Oregon has a perfect machinery for registering the public will, and that the voters have a right to make up their minds without being dragoened by candidates. He will make a statement of his position, in accordance with the Oregon law, and take his chances with that.
